

Central and South American Telegraph Co.

66 Broadway,

New York, January 12th, 1914.

James A. Strymer,
President.

Mr. W. G. H. Cross,

San Juan del Sur.

My dear Mr. Cross,

Just a line to express my sincere regret that you are leaving us. Our relations have been so pleasant and delightful during all these years and I shall miss you. Please do not let yourself drop out entirely but send me a letter once in a while telling me how you are getting along.

With every good wish to you and yours for the coming years and my kindest personal regards,

I am,

Very sincerely yours,

